Day 04 – Agra

Dawn Over The Red Fort Of Agra

Private Guided Tour Of The Agra Red Fort

People sometimes forget that Agra contains more than the Taj Mahal. The 16th century Mughal monument known as the Red Fort Of Agra was built by Akbar The Great (1556-1605) and was a walled palace that remained India's premier city for almost two centuries.

The powerful fortress of red sandstone encompasses within its 1.5 mile-long enclosure walls many fairytale palaces such as the Jahangir Palace and the Khas Mahal, audience halls such as the Diwan-i-Khas, and Sheesh Mahal (The Glass Palace) which is inlaid with thousands of mirrors and was once the harem's dressing room.

Day 05 – Ranthambhore

Classic View Of The Taj Mahal

The Amazing Beauty Of The Taj Mahal

The Taj Mahal is the world's greatest monument to love. Set overlooking the River Yamuna, the Taj was built by Emperor Shah Jahan to enshrine the body of his favourite wife in 1631. To truly appreciate the wondrous Taj Mahal and its many moods, you should aim to visit it at dawn or dusk when the reflection of the sun changes the colour of the dome from white to shades of pink.

The Deserted City Of Fatehpur Sikri

The deserted city of Fatehpur Sikri was the capital of Emperor Akbar between 1570 and 1585. Due to a severe shortage of water the city was abandoned after only fifteen years and the capital was relocated back to Agra. As a result Fatehpur Sikri stands untouched and perfectly preserved, a complete medieval fortress of red sandstone, with vast central squares, exquisitely carved multi-tiered pavilions, cool terraces and formal gardens.

Day 06 – Ranthambhore

Tiger At Ranthambhore

Ranthambhore

Ranthambore is a dry jungle forest with rocky hillcrests and open valleys dotted with water pools and fruit trees. A 1000-year old fortress looms above the forest. It is one of India's most spectacular and best known Tiger reserves. A series of adjoining reserves at Ranthambhore cover an area of nearly 500 sq. km.

Ranthambore's tigers display diurnal behaviour, whereby animals are active during the daytime and rest during the night. It is only at this reserve that Tigers are well acquainted with jeeps and other vehicles, and can be spotted even on the road. Tigers at Ranthambore have even been known to even hunt in full view of human visitors.

Leopards and Sloth Bears are present but rarely seen during daytime. Other predators at the reserve include Striped Hyenas, Jackals, Jungle Cats, Caracals and Indian Foxes who prey on plentiful numbers of Sambar Deer, Chital, Nilgai, Blackbuck and Indian Wild Boar. Primates include Hanuman Langurs and Macaques. The park also has a large number of Marsh Crocodiles.

The park's abandoned fortress, lakes and above all it's 'friendly' tigers have made it one of the most filmed and photographed wildlife reserves in the world.

Sambar Cub At Ranthambhore

Day 07 – Jaipur*Saree Market At Jaipur*Jaipur

The old Pink City of Jaipur has a stunning backdrop of ancient forts like Amber that stand as dramatic testimonials of a bygone era and a reminder of their lingering romance. Jaipur is the largest city in Rajasthan and was built in the eighteenth century by Sawai Jai Singh as India's first planned city.

Jaipur is often called the Pink City in reference to its distinctly coloured buildings, which were originally painted this colour to imitate the red sandstone architecture of Mughal cities. The present earthy red color originates from repainting of the buildings undertaken for a visit by the Prince Of Wales in 1876.

Musician At Amber Palace

It is now a vast museum with exhibits that have lost none of their splendour. The Jantar Mantar Observatory is a fascinating astronomical observatory with massive instruments used to predict the monsoon and identify the movements of the stars.

The Palace Of The Winds (Hawa Mahal) is Jaipur's most acclaimed attraction. Built in 1799, overlooking one of the city's main streets to offer the women of the court a vantage point, behind stone-carved screens, from which to watch the activity in the bazaars below.

The Fabulous Amber Fort And Palace

Amber is situated about 7 miles from Jaipur and was the ancient citadel of the ruling clan of Amber. The Amber Fort (1592) set in picturesque and rugged hills is a fascinating blend of Hindu and Mughal architecture.
