Mahabalipuram dates back to the Tamil Pallava dynasty in the 7th-9th century. The structures here, mostly carved straight out of granite, are among the oldest existing examples of Dravidian (South Indian) architecture. The Shore Temple is the oldest structure (700 AD). The Five Rathas site contains five stone rathas (chariots), dating from the 7th century. The sculptures are complemented by some enormous stone animals, including a large elephant.
