About The Manor Hotel

The Manor was originally developed as a small country hotel in the 1950s, in Friends Colony, in what was once the outskirts of Delhi. Today, it is an oasis in the centre of this sprawling bustling city. The 2-storey, 16-room boutique hotel is set in landscaped gardens and has been completely redesigned as a contemporary luxury hotel.

The Manor's emphasis on quality, understated elegance and comfort is apparent in public areas contrasting cool Italian mosaic flooring with warm, rich wood panelling. Combined with service that is friendly and efficient, the Manor is the perfect retreat.

Rooms

High ceilings give the Suites a spacious feel. All are individually decorated in caramel and beige hues. A combined sitting area and bedroom features a king-size bed, sofa, chairs, and large writing table. Some suites have a small private terrace. Rooms are smaller with a queen-size bed and writing table.

The Manor Suite is located on the upper floor of the hotel and opens onto its own sitting room. There is a separate bedroom, dressing room and bathroom and also a small outdoor terrace that provides a garden outlook. All accommodations have en suite bathrooms finished in deep emerald green granite with a separate bathtub and shower room.

Fine Dining

Upstairs, the open-air Roof Terrace, fitted with cushions for lounging, offers an ideal setting for the midday snack or pre-dinner cocktail.

The clean modern design of the Onyx Bar, with its spectacular Onyx counter, warm wood panelling and cool mosaic floor, reflects the careful use of rich, local, natural material.

Indian Accent, the restaurant, offers traditional Indian food as well as contemporary Mediterranean cuisine with fresh ingredients prepared simply and presented elegantly.

The hotel chefs have developed modern Indian dishes, and for those who would like something more simple, a superb Mediterranean menu is also available.
