Fine Dining

The 'Open House' restaurant is open on the front sides with arches and overlooks the pool. It has a wooden roof ceiling on its main hall which is some 100 years old with such exquisite decorative work, sourced from the marriage hall of a feudal chief in Tamil Nadu. The restaurant offers multi-cuisine fare with the specialty of seafood and local ethnic cuisine.

The 'Ocean Grill' beach side restaurant is ideally situated between the beach grove and the sea. With thatched roofing and sea breeze caressing through this restaurant specializes in sea food.

Facilities

The main swimming pool features a set of Jacuzzis. Beverages and light refreshments for the pool users are served from the restaurant.

The Beach Center is in an acre of land with lush green swaying coconut palms by the side of the beach with access to the main hotel area on the cliff. The center also serves snacks and beverages.

Games including beach volley ball are organized on request. Nature walks on the extensive network of pavements and along the edge of the cliff can also be engaged in to exercise the body and the mind. Barbeques provide spectacular view of the night sky and the countless lights of a myriad fishing boats of the local fishermen reflecting on the waves of the turquoise blue sea.

Cultural performances are arranged in the evenings by professional artists and groups include art forms like Mohiniyattam, Kathakali and classical music.
