About Windermere Estate

Windermere Estate is a beautiful planter's retreat in the hills, situated 1600m above sea-level in the upper reaches of the Western Ghats a short drive from the tea-growing hill station town of Munnar. The town was a favoured summer retreat for the British during colonial times due to its cooler climes and spectacular scenery. The Windermere Estate offers breathtaking views, spacious and comfortable rooms, attentive service and accomplished food. The plantation grows cardamom, pepper, tea and coffee.

Facilities

Day treks are organised in the surrounding countryside, including visits to Eravikulam National Park, about 19km away, to see the Nilgiri Tahr, a rare species of mountain goat. Mattupetty Dam is 13km and offers some wonderful boating opportunities. One may also trek through 60 acres of meandering greenery of the Windermere Cardamom Estate.

Guides can also take you on an early morning trek, winding up through the hardy tea plants to the top of Chokkan Mudi at 2,500m, overlooking Windermere (two hours), or to Attukkad Waterfall (40 minutes). Since you're in the midst of Tata tea country, this is the place to visit a tea museum, where the history, processing and art of making a cup of tea are all revealed.
